World Parks Day Hike Saturday, September 18, 2010

Join The Scantic River Watershed Association and the Enfield Recreation Department to celebrate World Parks Day for a leisurely hike along the natural and scenic Scantic River Greenway. World Parks Day is held to help communicate the critical importance of parks in a global context as well as to encourage people to enjoy their local parks and appreciate the importance of green space. The hike will begin at the Scantic Linear Park in Hazardville and follow the river to the Springboard dam and then loop back. Part of the hike requires hiking a moderately steep incline. Please bring water and sturdy footwear. Total distance: approximately 1.5 miles. Meet for the hike at 10:00 a.m. in the Scantic Linear Park parking lot on the south side at 464 Hazard Avenue (Route 190) in Hazardville across from Holiday Lane. Heavy rain will cancel the hike. For more information contact the leader, Rex Joffray, at (860) 324-7948 or email
